NOTICE

It is hereby notified for the information of all lateral entry students that the issuance of the cumulative grade card after completion of the degree is subject to the transfer of credits from their previous institutions/universities, which is a mandatory prerequisite.

In this connection, all concerned students are advised to contact the Examination Wing of the college along with their APAAR IDs and the transcripts issued by their previous university/institution for necessary processing.

Failure to comply with the above may result in delay in the issuance of the cumulative grade card.
